

Institute for Austrian and International Tax Law Vienna

OMV-Research Fellowship

for Romanian researchers

The Institute for Austrian and International Tax Law of the Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration offers a unique opportunity for a 12 month research fellowship in the field of „EUROPEAN AND INTERNATIONAL TAX LAW“ for a young Romanian researcher. Our department has one of the best libraries in the world dealing with this topic and enjoys an excellent world wide reputation. The fellowship is sponsored by OMV, the leading oil and natural gas group in Central and Eastern Europe.

WHAT WE OFFER YOU

- A 12-month OMV-Research Fellowship in European and International Tax Law from January 2007 to December 2007
- One of the best libraries for International Tax Law in the world
- State-of-the-art working facilities and the support of a motivated academic staff
- The possibility of discussing your research progress with highly-reputed international tax experts and lecturers
- Publication of your academic work in reputed tax journals or Institute's series
- A unparalleled opportunity to broaden your know-how in European and International Tax Law
- Preferred access to the post-graduate program in „International Tax Law“
- The opportunity to gain additional expertise in the fields of economics and law
- Monthly gross allowance of 1,600 €

WHAT WE REQUIRE FROM YOU

- Romanian citizenship
- Age between 20 and 35 years
- Juridical knowledge, especially in regard to European and International Tax Law
- University degree either in Law and/or Economics or advanced University study in Law and/or Economics
- Readiness to work in a young and dynamic team
- Desire to publish scientific papers
- English and/or German language skills

AIM OF THE OMV-RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP

- A scientific elaboration of the Romanian tax system
- A comparative law analysis between the Romanian and Austrian tax system
- The elaboration of the required adjustment of the Romanian tax system in order for it to be in line with EU law

GENERAL INFORMATION

During your 12-month OMV-Research Fellowship you will have employment status at the Department of Austrian and International Tax Law of the Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration. A residence authorization for scientific activities is not required under Austrian Law. Only a permanent residency permit, issued by the Austrian Embassy in Romania, is required.

The OMV-Research Fellowship assistant is subject to tax in Austria with his/her worldwide income under Austrian domestic law. Double taxation is avoided under the double tax convention Austria-Romania, under which Austria in general has the right to tax the fellowship. For the allocation of the taxing rights in the respective case, however, the individual situation of the fellowship assistant has to be taken into consideration.

APPLICATION

Please send your application via e-mail OR fax OR post, including

- Curriculum Vitae
(including: post- and e-mail address, telephone number, photo, nationality, date of birth, education, work experiences, academic activities,...)
- Letter of motivation
- Letter of recommendation
- Proposal for the research activities (maximum three pages)
- Copies of university diploma (no translation required)

Closing date for your application is: October 31, 2006

CONTACT

Institute for Austrian and International Tax Law
Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration
c/o Birgit Stürzlinger
Althanstraße 39-45
1090 Wien

e-mail: birgit.stuerzlinger@wu-wien.ac.at
Tel. +43/1/31 336/ 5066
Fax: +43/1/31 336/730
Internet: <http://www.wu-wien.ac.at/taxlaw>

Prof. Michael Lang / Prof. Pasquale Pistone / Prof. Josef Schuch / Prof. Claus Staringer